National Sport day is celebrated as the Birthday of Great hockey player Shri. Major Dhyanchand. Major Dhyanchand was serving in the Indian Armed forces and playing hockey For Indian Army. Soon he got selected in the National team. Under his tenure the Indian hockey team beat the English Team in Britain. This was the most proud moment for every Indian then as India was under British Rule. Later on the Indian Hockey team won its first olympic Medal, indirectly messaging people that Indians can beat anyone in the world including Britisher and German s . This sense of pride was a catalyst in the Indian Independence movement and Hockey as a sport connected all states as a Nation. The True face of this pride moment was Major Dhaynchand and his magical hockey game. After independence, the Govt of India announced Major Dhaynchand's Birthday as National Sports Day.

Here we decided to celebrate National Sport day to connect dots between life and sport challenges. The objective was to recall, rejoy and celebrate sport as a part of life.
