Report on : "Distributing masks to street vendors"

Dr. D Y Patil Institute of Management & Entrepreneur Development recently organized a meaningful extension activity, "Distributing masks to street vendors" on 22nd February 2021. Under the guidance of Director Dr. R. M. Indi, this initiative aimed to address public health concerns during the ongoing pandemic. Fourteen students actively participated in the event, ensuring its success.

The faculty played a crucial role in the planning and execution of the activity. Prof. Shubhangi Ramteke, Prof. Sachin Thool, and Prof. Ratikanta Ray, as faculty representatives, provided essential support and guidance. Their involvement ensured that the event was well-organized and aligned with the institute's commitment to community welfare.

The chosen location for the event, Talegaon Dabhade Railway Station, was strategically selected due to its high footfall of street vendors. This decision aimed to maximize the impact of the mask distribution drive within the local community.

Miss. Khusboo Mishra and Tejal Raskar, serving as students' coordinators, played key roles in orchestrating the logistics and ensuring a smooth process. Their efforts contributed to the effective coordination of the 14 students involved in the distribution drive.

Beyond the distribution of masks, the participants engaged with street vendors, imparting awareness about the significance of mask-wearing and promoting hygiene practices to mitigate the spread of infectious diseases. This aspect of community engagement reflects the institute's commitment to social responsibility and public health.

In conclusion, the Mask Distribution to Street Vendors extension activity organized by Dr. D Y Patil Institute of Management & Entrepreneur Development underscores the institution's dedication to community well-being. The collaborative efforts of faculty, students, and coordinators made this event not only a practical contribution to public health but also a demonstration of the institute's values in action.
