Report Individual Career Counseling

Date: 24/12/2022

No. of Participant: 89

Resource Person: Mr. Sumit Gaikwad (Career counselor - campus credentials Pvt. Ltd) and Team.

On 24th December 2022, our institute organized an informative and engaging Individual Career Counseling session led by the esteemed resource person, Mr. Sumit Gaikwad. The session aimed to provide students with valuable insights and guidance on various aspects of career development.

The following points were covered during the session:

Explore Career Options and Pathways:

Mr. Sumit Gaikwad facilitated an exploration of diverse career options and pathways that students can consider based on their interests and strengths. He encouraged students to think critically about their passions and how they can align them with potential career choices.

Guidance on Choosing Courses and Majors: The resource person provided expert guidance on selecting the right courses and majors that are in alignment with students' desired careers. He emphasized the importance of making informed decisions about educational paths.

Discussion of Questions and Concerns: Students had the opportunity to openly discuss any questions or concerns related to their educational and professional goals. Mr. Gaikwad patiently addressed each query, providing valuable insights and advice.

Creation of Personalized Career Development Plans: Mr. Gaikwad assisted students in creating personalized career development plans, considering their individual aspirations and the steps they need to take to achieve their goals. This process helped students map out their future pathways.

The session was well-attended, and students found it to be highly beneficial. Mr. Sumit Gaikwad's expertise and engaging presentation style made the session not only informative but also inspiring. Students left the session with a clearer understanding of their potential career directions and actionable plans for the future.

We would like to extend our gratitude to Mr. Sumit Gaikwad for his valuable contribution to our students' career development. We believe that this session has set our students on a path towards a brighter and more informed future.

- The interviews were conducted in a structured and professional manner to closely mimic real interview situations.
- Following each interview, students received constructive feedback and suggestions for improvement from the resource persons.
- The event was highly interactive, with students actively engaging in discussions and asking questions to clarify doubts.

Key Takeaways:

The Mock Interview Activity proved to be a tremendous learning experience for the students. Some of the key takeaways included:

Improved Interview Skills: Students gained valuable experience in handling interview questions and improved their ability to articulate their strengths and qualifications.

Feedback for Growth: The feedback from Mr. Ganesh Rathod and Mr. Ajay Deshmukh was instrumental in helping students identify areas of improvement and refine their interview techniques.

Increased Confidence: Participating in mock interviews boosted the confidence of our students, making them more self-assured in real interview scenarios.

Conclusion:

The one-to-one Mock Interview Activity was a resounding success. It provided students with a platform to practice their interview skills, receive expert guidance, and enhance their overall employability. We express our gratitude to Mr. Ganesh Rathod and Mr. Ajay Deshmukh from G Soft Solutions Pvt Ltd. for their valuable contribution to this event.

Report on Group Discussion Activity

Day & Date: Tuesday, 25th April 2023

Time: 3.00 PM to 4.30 PM

Mode of Conduction: Offline Classroom Activity

Type of Activity: Group Discussion

No of Beneficiaries: 38

Topics: Financial Management, Social Issues

Introduction:

A group discussion activity was organized for MBA 1st-year students by Prof. Ritesh Phalke and Sonal Kotulkar. The aim of the activity was to promote healthy discussions among students and to encourage them to express their opinions on the topics of online and offline education systems and the need for English language in the Indian education system.

Participants:

The activity was attended by 16 students of MBA 1st-year from various streams, including marketing, finance, human resources, and operations.

Format:

The group discussion activity was divided into two parts. The first part focused on the online and offline education system, while the second part was related to the need for the English language in the Indian education system.

Part 1: Online and Offline Education System

In the first part of the discussion, students shared their opinions on the advantages and disadvantages of both online and offline education systems. Some students felt that online education was more flexible and convenient, while others believed that offline education provided better interaction with teachers and classmates. The discussion also touched upon the impact of COVID-19 on the education system, and how it has forced institutions to adopt online education as the primary mode of learning.

Part 2: English Language in Indian Education System

In the second part of the discussion, students expressed their views on whether the English language should be made compulsory in the Indian education system. The discussion focused on the benefits of knowing English, such as better job opportunities and access to global markets. However, some students felt that English should not be forced upon students and that regional languages should be given more importance.

Objectives:

- Develop and refine verbal communication skills, including articulation, clarity, and the ability to express complex ideas concisely.
- Foster problem-solving skills by presenting participants with challenging topics and encouraging them to propose solutions.
- Promote teamwork and collaboration, allowing students to work effectively in a group setting.

Learning Outcomes:

- Participants will demonstrate improved verbal communication skills, including the ability to express complex ideas clearly and persuasively.
- Participants will exhibit improved problem-solving skills, including the ability to identify issues, analyze them from multiple perspectives, and propose innovative solutions.
- Students will learn how to collaborate effectively in a team, contributing their insights while respecting diverse viewpoints.

Report
Mistakes to be Avoided in Start-ups

Date: 05/05/2023

Location: Seminar Hall

Resource Person: Mrs. Sonal Vaida

Executive Summary:

The webinar titled " Mistakes do be avoided in Start-ups " held on 05/05/2023 was a resounding success. The event featured Sonal Vaida , a renowned entrepreneur, who shared valuable insights, experiences, and lessons from their entrepreneurial journey. 55 students attended the seminar. The Seminar was moderated by Sachin Ashok Jamnikar and organized by Dr Rajesh Kumar Jha.

Key Takeaways

1. Lack of Market Research

- The importance of thorough market research was emphasized. Start-ups need to understand their target audience, competition, and market trends before launching their products or services.
- Speakers shared case studies of start-ups that failed due to a lack of market research, highlighting the adverse consequences of not knowing the market demand.

2. Ignoring a Business Plan

- The necessity of a well-defined business plan was discussed. Start-ups must outline their goals, strategies, and financial projections to secure funding and guide their growth.

- Experts stressed that a clear business plan acts as a roadmap and facilitates decision-making.

3. Insufficient Funding

- The seminar highlighted the significance of securing adequate funding. Many start-ups fail because they underestimate their financial needs or lack a sustainable funding strategy.
- Speakers shared insights into various funding options, including bootstrapping, angel investors, venture capital, and crowdfunding.

4. Team and Leadership Issues

- Building the right team is crucial. Start-ups should focus on hiring individuals with complementary skills and a shared vision.
- Leadership challenges, such as poor communication and a lack of adaptability, were discussed. Effective leadership is essential for a start-up's success.

5. Scaling Too Quickly

- Premature scaling can lead to resource depletion and eventual failure. Start-ups should focus on achieving product-market fit before expanding rapidly.
- Case studies were presented, illustrating the adverse effects of scaling too quickly without a solid foundation.

6. Neglecting Marketing and Customer Acquisition

- Start-ups often overlook the importance of marketing and customer acquisition. Building a strong online presence and engaging with customers is essential for growth.
- Strategies for cost-effective marketing, such as content marketing and social media, were discussed.

7. Failure to Adapt

- Start-ups need to be agile and open to change. Speakers emphasized the need to pivot when necessary and respond to evolving market conditions.
- Examples of start-ups that successfully adapted to unforeseen challenges were shared as inspiration.

8. Lack of Focus

- Maintaining a clear focus on the core product or service was stressed. Diversifying too early or pursuing unrelated ventures can lead to failure.
- Speakers encouraged attendees to prioritize their strengths and concentrate on what sets their start-up apart.

Conclusion.

The seminar on "Mistakes to Be Avoided in Start-ups" provided a comprehensive overview of the challenges faced by entrepreneurs and the common mistakes that can hinder a start-up's success. The insights shared by industry experts and the real-world examples of both failures and successes offered valuable lessons for all attendees.

Entrepreneurs and aspiring start-up founders were encouraged to apply these lessons to their ventures, fostering a greater chance of success in an increasingly competitive business landscape.

We extend our gratitude to the organizers, speakers, and attendees for making this seminar a successful and informative event. We look forward to hosting more such seminars to support and educate the entrepreneurial community.

Problem-solving skills and critical thinking

Date: 9th Sept 2021

Topic: Problem-solving skills and critical thinking

Participant: 46

Introduction:

On September 9, 2021, our institute organized an engaging and insightful group discussion activity centered around the theme "Problem-solving Skills and Critical Thinking." The purpose of this activity was to cultivate a platform for students to exchange ideas, enhance critical thinking abilities, and sharpen problem-solving skills in a collaborative setting.

Discussion Highlights:

The group discussion activity was structured to encourage participants to express their perspectives, share experiences, and explore various dimensions related to problem-solving and critical thinking.

Key highlights of the discussion included:

- Understanding Problem-solving Techniques: Students deliberated on different problem-solving methodologies, sharing personal strategies and experiences when faced with challenges or complex situations.
- Importance of Critical Thinking: The discourse emphasized the significance of critical thinking in analyzing issues from multiple angles, evaluating information, and making informed decisions.
